Bachelor of Science in Education. Leads to multi-age licensure to teach students who are deaf/hard of hearing. This degree program is designed to be completed in 4 years. Changing majors, academic issues or other unforeseen circumstances may require additional semesters for completion.

Student Teaching Internship and Program Admission requirements are listed on the attached sheet.

Call CDIS program office for course enrollment of CDIS 2250.

EDFI 3020 is recommended choice.

Grade of “C” or better required.

NOTE: Undergraduate students and degree holders seeking initial licensure must meet all specified requirements, including successful completion of PRAXIS tests.

Degree Audit Report (DAR) is available on MyBGSU. This is an unofficial record of a student’s progress.
All students desiring to enter the D/HH Program must meet specific admission criteria. Prospective D/HH majors will be assigned a special education advisor, given an D/HH check sheet to follow, and advised to take courses required in the D/HH major. They will, however, need to be fully admitted in the program before enrollment in EDIS methods courses will be permitted.
